FERTILIZERS.

THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE PHOSPHATE.

The Best Fertilizer In the World.

We have concluded after mature deliberation to sell at this season, for 400 pounds of middling Cotton, deliverable on or before November 15th, or for $47.50, payable on or before May 1st, 1876. We now assure our friends that on account of the low price of Cotton at this time, we do not expect to make much money on the Guano, but in consideration of past favors, we are willing to run the risk of making a small profit this season, besides it seems to be the universal opinion among farmers that the price of Guano ought to be governed by the price of cotton.

THE STAR PHOSPHATE

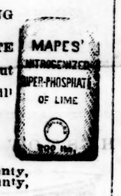
THE STAR

sustains its high and unadulterated standard. WE SELL NOTHING BUT FIRST-CLASS FERTILIZERS.

We are also agents for MAPES' NITROGENIZED SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME. This is comparatively a new Fertilizer to our Farmers, but before selling at our store for a pamphlet with testimonials, Farmers will know what we are selling.



We refer to such men, who have used our Fertilizers, as

J. Ivey, Wake county,
R. Rand, "
R. Alford, "
Stewart, Harnett county,
A. Johnson, "
S. Poe, Chatham county,
Silas Harris, "
A. M. Thomas, "
and many others whose experience is very flattering.

RHODES' SUPER PHOSPHATE.

We are now selling RHODES' STANDARD AMMONIATED SUPER PHOSPHATE,

Prepared Expressly for Cotton!

This Fertilizer has given the greatest satisfaction to all who have used it, not only to the grower of Cotton, but as a PERMANENT IMPROVER OF THE SOIL. It is an article high in percentage of the most valuable Fertilizing ingredients, which are Soluble Phosphate of Lime, Ammonia, Potash, &c. We respectfully refer by permission to the following parties who have used this Fertilizer: R. J. Ivey, Raleigh; W. G. Ridge-house; F. C. Christopher, Raleigh; R. Pully, Wakefield; A. B. Dewar, Harnett; Walter Dodd am, Raleigh, and others. Cotton growers would do well to see us before closing their Guanos.

We keep on hand a full line of GROCERIES and LIQUORS.

LIQUORS.

THE BEST MEDICINAL WHISKIES.

I invite the attention of the public to the following certificates:

RALEIGH, N. C. August 27th, 1875.

MESSRS. J. B. BROWN & CO., BALTIMORE:

GENTS:—The three bottles of whiskies, "Harry Bassett," "Rye Bourbon" and "Old Private Stock," purchased from you, have been examined and found to be perfectly free from all the impurities found in Common Whiskies—Chromic Acid being the test applied. They can be safely used for Medicinal purposes.

Very Respectfully, JAMES McKEE, M. D.

THE above brands of Liquors are kept constantly on hand and for sale at the store of

No. 3 Exchange Place, North Side. W. W. GILL.

Orders from the country promptly filled. Terms cash.

EDUCATIONAL.

HILLSBORO MILITARY ACADEMY.

Classical and Scientific School.

This school, having opened on the 17th of January, is now in successful operation, gathering a collection of good boys, a company of joyous youth, happy in their surroundings, happy in the advantages here afforded, and happy in each others society.

Military in its discipline and drill, and adapted for instruction in science, it is now on that account, a CLASSICAL SCHOOL, possessing in this PROMINENT FEATURE eminent advantages.

With Associate Instructors highly accomplished in their respective departments, skilful and zealous, the Principal is satisfied that no department of the School either of Ancient or Modern languages, English studies or Science can suffer.

The endorsement of MR. HUGH MORRIS, by Professors Gildersleeve, Peabody, Schele DeVere, of the University of Virginia, with the high appreciation of his scholarly attainments have commended him here; and the endorsement of D. H. Hamilton by Col. Simonton, of South Carolina, with the record he has made for himself as practically acknowledged by Col. Tew and others, are sufficient guarantees of their ability and skill as instructors. With such co-operators, the Principal feels that he can prove the school to be all that a parent could desire or an enlightened public sentiment demands.

THE CITY.

The necessary absence of our "Local" last night, deprives our readers of his spicy little paragraphs. We must beg their indulgence for the indifferent substitute we make on his side of the paper.

New type, new paper, new ideas, new prices at the News Job Office.

Baptist Female Seminary. The spring term of this school will open on Tuesday Feb. 1st, 1876.

Judge Henry and Mr. W. S. Candler a member of the Legislature from Buncombe are at the Yarboro.

The young men and ladies of the city have organized a "German" club.

Bradley & Leonard are making a new article of Butter Scotch Candy, which sells like hot cakes.

Woods pine at $3.50; seasoned oak at $4.00; field pine at $3 00. Call on J. D. Whitaker near City Bank for supplies.

The Macadamizing of the streets on each side of the Market House is completed, and Martin street is receiving attention again.

The glare of the sun on the white walls of the new Post-office building, together with its warmth yesterday, were very fruitful of summer suggestions.

Mr. W. B. Gulick, now of Columbia, S. C., formerly of this city, is here on a visit, and rumor has it, contemplates returning here to reside. He will be warmly welcomed.

The delinquent city tax list will be published in the News Tuesday morning next. Go and pay your taxes if you don't wish your name advertised.

We are informed that Messrs. A. C. Sanders have sold thus far in the season, 470 tons of the Star Ammoniated Soluble Phosphate, which will do very well so far.

Said the gentleman briskly: "I get better work, better prices and better satisfaction at the News Job Office than any other office I have ever patronized."

Edenton, N. C., is said to be the second town in the United States—we hear of but two, Edenton and Memphis—that made a contribution to the Lee Mausoleum fund in a corporate capacity.

The retail sales of Bradley & Leonard's candy are daily increasing. All kinds of plain and French candies are made every day. Their French Butter Scotch, and Caramels cannot be surpassed. Call and see them.

Meat 10 cents a pound, rice 10 cents a pound, 3 pound canned tomatoes at 20 cents a can, black tea 50 cents a pound, fresh eggs 15 cents a dozen, car load of seed oats cheap, at Woollcott's open front store, Wilmington street.

One of our most successful and enterprising merchants claims he has realized more solid benefits from his advertisement in the News than from any other investment he ever made in the way of extending his business.

Every variety and quality of furniture to be found at Fraps' warerooms and sample rooms, on the corner of Davie and Fayetteville streets, and opposite the market house. He will sell as low as the lowest.

Many of the sharpest little children of Raleigh are pretending to have wretched colds. They want some of Bradley & Leonard's Medicated Cough Candy, which is prepared by a well-tested receipt, has the approval of the medical profession and is very pleasant. Try it.

All the world is expected to come out in new "toggery" this Centennial year, and Weikel is the man to make the transformation. But if there are those who prefer to stick to old fashions, Weikel can accommodate him also. See his ad. and let him suit you.

Remember that the foundation of a good garden is first good seeds and then good culture. Buist's Garden Seeds are without question the most reliable, and are fast becoming the most popular. Pescud Lee & Co., Druggists have a fresh supply of them.

At Woollcott's Open Front Store, on Wilmington street, you can buy fresh eggs at fifteen cents a dozen, bolted meal at eighty-five cents a bushel, corn at eighty cents a bushel, the very best flour at five cents a pound, and good side meat at twelve and a half cents a pound.

To look at the windows of the book stores and toy shops, St. Valentine's day is to be welcomed with brilliant honors. Beecher's expression "on the ragged edge of despair" is a favorite illustration, not exactly in the author's sense, but in the home application to every man with a big family of hungry mouths to be filled.

The little notice in yesterday morning's paper giving warning against trespass upon the flowers and grass of the Capitol square is neither harsh nor ill-natured. It is designed to secure for all, what individuals would appropriate to themselves. The sweet breath of the violet perfumes an atmosphere which is inhaled with enjoyment by all. The beau who adorns his button-hole with a cluster of them has own selfish pleasure at the expense of that of the many.

The keeper of the capitol is right, and right thinking people will think with him.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

Opinions were filed by the Justices on yesterday in the following cases and in the following order:

By PEARSON, C. J.:

Samuel Harper vs. W. L. Arendell, from Carteret. Error. Judgment modified so as to strike out the order to the Clerk and allow execution on the judgment against the defendant.

Boylston Insurance Company et al. vs. John D. Davis, from Carteret. No error. Affirmed.

By READE, J.:

John Hall vs. Commissioners of Guilford county, from Guilford. Error. Venire de novo.

Flora McFarland vs. John McKay, administrator, from Richmond. No error. Cause remanded to the end that the defendant may answer.

By RODMAN, J.:

Jas. Campbell et al. vs. J. J. Wolfenden et al., from Craven. Affirmed.

Gwathmey, Dey & Co. vs. C. W. Cason, from Chowan. Affirmed.

By SETTLE, J.:

R. Barnes, Administrator vs. Piedmont & Arlington Life Insurance Company, from Harnett. Affirmed.

State vs. Jerry Rorie et al. from Richmond. Error Venire de novo.

By BYNUM, J.:

F. Borden Mace, vs. Isaac Ramsey, from Carteret; affirmed.

C. B. Curlee vs. Annice Thomas, Union. Error, judgment reversed.

OXFORD SCHOOLS.

We learn that Prof. T. A. Fetter, the Principal of the Oxford Male Academy resumed the exercises of the Spring session of his school on Monday last with most flattering prospects.

The Messrs. Horner will open their school at Oxford for the reception of pupils on Monday the 31st inst. We learn they have received quite a number of applications from persons who intend patronizing their school.

While Oxford is peculiarly blessed in the educational advantages it affords to boys, it is equally as much so in those it extends to girls. The more prominent of the schools for young ladies are those presided over by Mrs. Hays and Mrs. Stradley—the former having charge of the Female Seminary, and the latter of a private school which she has been successfully conducting for several years past.

Oxford is proverbially healthy and its schools have usually received a large share of patronage from sections of country less favored by nature in point of healthfulness.

AN OLD MAID BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT.

A grandfather sends for his granddaughter aged nineteen to come and live with him, he is helpless and insane and has to be nursed and cared for as a child. They alone live together, and after his death she sues for the value of her services, being now an old maid. Mr. Battle for the defence and Mr. Bailey for the plaintiff vied with each other in eulogistic encomiums upon old maids, and both agreeing they were the salt of this earth. Mr. Battle however contended that even the privilege to an old maid of presiding over a household was sufficient compensation for her services. But Mr. Bailey replied he could not appreciate how being the matron of a lunatic asylum could of itself compensate an old maid for her labor: We shall await the opinion of the court with much interest.

GENERAL RELIGIOUS MEETING.

Dr. Pritchard has just received an invitation to participate in a ten days religious meeting of Northern and Southern Baptists at Ocean Grove, a beautiful watering place on the coast of New Jersey, commencing the eleventh of July next and to continue until the 20th. This invitation has been extended to twenty-eight eminent ministers, and we notice among the list the following clergy from the South; Drs. R. Fuller, W. T. Brantley, J. A. Broaddus, J. L. Burrows, W. E. Hatcher, A. T. Spaulding, and A. E. Dickinson.

LEE'S BIRTHDAY.

The Atlanta Constitution thinks the 19th of January will hereafter be a well-kept day in the South. It was generally made the occasion of an appropriate oration, and at Mobile Father Ryan contributed a new poem in commemoration of Virginia's noble son.

A TOWN OUT OF MONEY.

A dispatch from Louisville reports that a number of business firms failed in Paris, Ky., last Monday, and thinks the "crash" in that town will jar a good many strong houses in Louisville.

STAMP TAX.

Gen. Scales, the Congressman from the sixth district, has introduced in the House a bill to reduce the tax on tobacco and whiskey and abolish the stamp tax on checks.

SUPREME COURT.

Yesterday in Supreme Court as follows:

State vs. Adolphus Mauney, from Rutherford. Argued by Attorney-General Hargrove for the State and R. C. Badger for the defendant. This case is one in which the defendant was convicted of a misdemeanor, sentenced to imprisonment and afterwards pardoned by the Governor in general words. The Judge below decided that the officers of the court, &c., had a vested right to the costs, after sentence, and that the Governor could not pardon. The defendant appealed to the Supreme Court.

Rebecca Houser vs. Levi Sain et al., from Lincoln. Argued by B. C. Cobb and Shipp & Bailey for plaintiff and Battle, Battle & Mordecai for defendants.

J. F. G. Spears and wife vs. R. L. Snell, from Cabarrus. Argued by R. Barringer for plaintiffs and W. J. Montgomery for defendant.

Richard Ten Broeck vs. William H. Orchard, from Cabarrus. Argued by Wilson & Son and B. Barringer for plaintiff and Shipp & Bailey and W. J. Montgomery for defendant.

The following cases were disposed of the 27th inst:

Jos. H. Wilson et al. vs. City of Charlotte, from Mecklenburg. Reargued. Shipp and Bailey for the plaintiff, and Jones & Johnston for defendant.

Benjamin Justice vs. Hulda Eddings, from Cleaveland. Argued. Battle & Son for plaintiff; no counsel for defendant.

William M. Tally vs. Wash Reed et al., from Cabarrus. W. H. Bailey for plaintiff, and Wilson & Son, W. J. Montgomery and R. Barringer for defendant.

R. S. Abrams, assignee, vs. Thos. R. Curston, Adm'r, from Polk. Smith & Strong for plaintiff, and Battle, Battle & Mordecai and W. J. Montgomery for defendant.

The delinquent city tax list will be published in the News Tuesday morning next. Go and pay your taxes if you don't wish your name advertised.

THE MOORE CASE.

The examination into the circumstance of the killing of Adolphus G. Moore was resumed at Graham yesterday, but the result has not yet been communicated. The examining court proceeded to Haw River on Thursday to take the dying declaration of the wounded man. But his strength was too far spent and he died without throwing farther light on the tragedy.

We received no information by mail yesterday afternoon. To-morrow we will be able to lay before the public all that is developed by testimony up to Saturday evening, having sent up a special reporter. We had thought our arrangements complete, but were disappointed.

CAN'T DO WITHOUT THE NEWS.

He walked into our office flurried and impatient and throwing himself into a chair, threw out his legs and broke out "I tell you Mr. Editor I've been taking the News ever since it began until lately when I moved to a distant part of the city where it could not be delived regularly by the carrier. Since I stopped getting it everything has gone wrong, and there is no peace in the family. If I can't get, it I'll move back into the very heart of the city, where I'll be bound to get it. Let me have a copy now. It'll be my fault if I go without any longer "and he went away a happier man."

BLIND TOM.

Our citizens have heard him before, and they know that his gifts are marvellous. Shut out from the light of heaven, the soul of music dwells within him to compensate for his physical deprivation. He is not simply a phenomenon, an example of what the cultivation of one gift can accomplish. He owes little to culture. His gifts are the spontaneous bestowal of Heaven, showered upon him in their full grown perfection. He performs here on the 7th of February.

The delinquent city tax list will be published in the News Tuesday morning next. Go and pay your taxes if you don't wish your name advertised.

INTERESTING QUESTION.

An interesting question is before the Supreme Court whether in pardoning an offender the pardon lifts the costs attached to the sentence. A man named Mauney was sentenced to jail in Rutherford thirty days and Gov. Bragden pardoned him, and now Mauney refuses to pay the costs. The question was before the Supreme Court yesterday, Mauney represented by Mr. R. C. Badger, and the Attorney-General and Mr. Argo, contra.

THAT POETRY.

There is a piece of poetry, said a friend on the street, the finest thing I ever read in the shape of poetry. It was published here in 1871 by John Gorman's paper, and then it was published in the Sentinel. I put two papers away to keep that poetry, but I know very well what became of them—the girls wore them—but I would like just to read that poetry again—it was, "The Beautiful Snow."

The delinquent city tax list will be published in the News Tuesday morning next. Go and pay your taxes if you don't wish your name advertised.

FRICKELL THE MAGICIAN.

The Union Herald and the Register, both of Columbia, speaks in high terms of the performance of Mr. Frickell, the Magician who, with his tricks of legerdemain and his trained canaries, gives an entertainment of great attractiveness; highened, too by the chance each one of the audience has to become possessor of some one of the great varieties of prizes offered to the purchasers of tickets.

Our citizens will have the opportunity of judging for themselves and sharing in the prizes on Monday evening Jan. 31st.

THE ASHEVILLE CITIZEN.

This Clarion of the Mountains comes to us in a new and handsome dress, being now an eight page, forty column paper. It is thus made more convenient to the reader, and susceptible of more satisfactory arrangement of matter to the editor. We are glad to know that the prospects of the Citizen are very flattering. It will do the work that is expected from it faithfully and well. Success to Furman and Stone.

It is well to remind every body just at this present moment that "one swallow does not make a summer"; an old saw that seems to be forgotten. To pass down Fayetteville street and see the loungers seated on the pavement in front of Yarboroughs or to see the piazza of the National filled with guests enjoying the balmy air of spring, as if winter are no more, one would pronounce it "green" forgetfulness. The budding trees also seem to forget that they had ever been caught before by the sudden grip of renovated winter. The gardeners are as impatient as if they too hadn ever had a set back in their eagerness to have the first vegetables in market. Look out for squalls.

Booth received six hundred dollars a night for his performances at Charlotte. It is the first time we have ever heard of speculation in tickets in North Carolina. Many were bought up and sold at a profit. We have heard of no one growing rich or famous as did Genin the hatter of New York who paid $225 at the sale of tickets for Jenny Lind's first concert in America, and who was troubled afterwards to make hats fast enough to meet the demand. "Genin hates" became as famous as Jenny's songs.

THE RIGHT WAY.

A rustic scene in city life was witnessed yesterday, a bonny lassie, fresh and pretty, her black hair hanging down, and the wagon whip in her hand, sitting on some fodder in a frame wagon in front of one our stores, and laughing and popping the whip as she chatted with a gallant young chap in his shirt sleeves. It beat kid gloves and dandy walking sticks to death.

Josh Billings is on his Southern tour delivering his inimitable humorous lectures. He will visit Raleigh before long and a rich treat is in store. He had the largest audiences almost ever known in the city of Baltimore, the Academy of Music being filled to overflow.

Large breaks will take place at the tobacco warehouse of E. H. Pogue & Co., in Hillsboro on the 8th and 9th of February, which will draw the attention of planters and buyers. This market has opened again with flattering prospects and gives good prospect of permanence.

SICK.

Solomon J. Allen, Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, is recovering from a spell of sickness, and Mrs. Miller, the mother of Fab Miller, is lying very low.

We learn by a letter from Durham that the sales of tobacco at Reams' warehouse this week have been very large, and that fine prices were obtained. The market there is not sustained.

BIDS.

Bids for the mail-routes in this section are lively and are no straw bids at that. Parties are offering very good prices.

NASH.

Nash county drew on the Auditor the other day for seven hundred and ninety-odd dollars on lunatic claims.

FOUR.

A. B. Hill, deputy sheriff of Halifax county, has brought four convicts to the penitentiary.

MOVED.

Mr. B. G. Rogers has moved his family from the country and settled in this city.

HOP.

There was a big dance at Durham last night.

STRENGTHENING THE HOLD ON LIFE.—Life is dear to most, if not all of us, and those whose tenure of it is rendered uncertain by feeble health, would gladly strengthen their hold upon existence The best advice that can be given to the debilitated is to invigorate with that sovereign vitalizer, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which fertilizes the blood by ensuring complete nutrition, and is an excellent remedy for those maladies which are the main causes of physical weakness. Indigestion, inactivity of the liver, urinary troubles, rheumatic complaints, and many other ailments and disabilities are speedily conquered by this safe, prompt and safe, stable corrective tonic which is, besides, a reliable preventive of chills and fever, and other malarial disorders, counteracts the effects of fatigue and exposure, and is a beneficial solace to the aged and infirm.

Nervous Debility Loss of Vital Fluids, Seminal Weakness, Etc., Cured.

[Extract from a letter.]

Dr. JONES:—Dear Sir;—When I first employed your skill I was indeed a sufferer with all the ills that follow the violation of those laws of our existence, the abuse of which leaves their terrible tale too plainly told. My memory was impaired, my body was nearly ruined, I had a gone, languor feeling, nervous debility, irregular sleep, starting and wasting dreams, weakness of the back, floating spots before the eyes, sometimes like webs, forgetfulness, inability to concentrate my mind, awful forebodings, desire to avoid company, dull heavy feeling. I was wasting away and despondent. I have been using your wonderful remedies now two months, and have regained my former vitality and vigor; my mind and body are improved—I am, indeed, a new being, with nearly all my former vigorous mind and body. I am now able to pursue my occupation, and feel that I am a man again, and know how to shun, in the future, that awful secret habit which would have ruined me but for your skill.

I am ever your friend,

☞ THE DAILY NEWS is the Only Paper in the City of Raleigh That Takes the Telegraphic Reports. ☜

OUR TERMS:

ADVERTISING RATES.—Per square (ten lines, Nonpariel) first insertion $1.00; each subsequent insertion 50 cents. Contracts for advertisements of any space or time can be made at the counting-room of the NEWS OFFICE.

CONTRACTORS will positively not be allowed to exceed their space, or advertise other than the legitimate business, except by paying specially for the same.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.—Daily, one year, $5.00; six months $3.00. Weekly, one year, $1.00; Six months, 75 cents, Invariably in advance.

Notice to Correspondents.

No letter can be published in these columns which is not authenticated by the name of its author. This we require, not for publication, but as a guarantee of the good faith of correspondents. Persons who violate this rule will have their communications consigned to the waste-basket.

☞ The subscription list of the DAILY NEWS is larger than that of any other Daily in the State, and more than double that of any other Daily in Raleigh. Advertisers should make a note of this. ☜

THE WEEKLY NEWS is the cheapest paper published in North Carolina. It is only one dollar per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

READ GOV. Chamberlain's letter and see what a piteous appeal he is compelled to make to the leaders of the Republican party to disabuse them of the idea that honesty and Republicanism are not incompatible; that Democracy and honesty are not convertible term; that the repudiation of such corrupt men as Moses and Whipper is not treason to his own party. Surely a party is sunk to the lowest depths of infamy when so much argument is needed to enforce the danger to the party of the protection of such men. But Chamberlain makes a despairing fight with the taint of party treason on him and with the consciousness that the national administration frowns discouragingly upon his virtue.

WE do not know how much importance to attach to the following from the Alta of the 18th January. That paper has been very hostile to Capt. Waddell and has spared no pains to excite hostility to him. It is very certain, however, that the Hawaian government acted in anticipation of any such memorial as referred to by the Alta, and having guaranteed its protection to Capt. Waddell, he will take command of his ship when she returns from Melbourne without troubling Congress or asking any favors at the hands of the Alta:

THE DEMOCRATS AND CAPT. WADDELL.

The San Francisco Alta of Jan. 18 says; "It is currently reported and generally believed that a memorial has been received in this city signed by sixty Democratic Congressmen addressed to the Hawaiian Government, threatening to vote against the Hawaiian Reciprocity Treaty if that Government insist on a persecution of Capt. Waddell, of Shenandoah fame. This is rather a significant threat, inasmuch as the Hawaiian Government has taken no action whatever in the matter. The objection was raised in this city against Capt. Waddell remaining in command of Pacific Mail steamers and American whalers in the port of Honolulu intimated that they might retaliate if Capt. Waddell should cast anchor in Hawaiian waters during their stay."

BENEFITS FROM THE STATE FAIR.

We referred a day or two since to the decided benefits already accured from the annual Fairs growing out of the knowledge acquired of modes, machinery and implements with which North Carolina farmers or mechancis previously had little acquaintance. This practical operation of these things on the Grounds, and the indubitable testimony of their efficiency and value induced many purchases, and originated many orders. Machines were ordered on the ground direct from the manufacturers at a saving of cost to the purchasers, amounting in the instance of the last Fair alone to some three thousand dollars—a saving in commissions or in personal visits to the manufactories. And the purchase of these things the intelligent buyers had the perception to see, were not useless or extravagant investments. The saving of labor, and the perfection of work demonstrated the economy of their use, and showed the necessity of their adoption, if North Carolina is to hold her own. And the comparison of the working of the various machinery side by side enabled the purchaser to select the best, without the cost and the trouble of inspecting each manufacturing establishment.

The introduction of agricultural machinery through the temptations offered by the State Fair, is going to do as much for the elevation and improvement of the farming interest as any other single agency.

DEATH OF MR. ADOLPHUS G. MOORE.

No circumstance of the kind has excited deeper interest or more profound regret than the untimely and tragic death of the gentleman whose decease we announced yesterday morning, from wounds received on the preceding Tuesday from the hands of George W Swepson. For Mr. Moore was well known throughout North Carolina, his characteristics attracting to him the firm attachment of many warm friends. He was one of those men who stood out without disguise before his fellow man. His chivalrous honor scorned concealment, his out-spoken candor despised subterfuge, his manly courage disdained evasion. He laid his character bare to the world. His heart was in his hand, and his generous impulses found utterance in open deed and fearless speech. He was so utterly frank and open that, whether as friend or foe, his candor and his fidelity to the one, and his fairness to the other was always to be relied on. He was true in his friendships, he was open and undisguised in his enmities. His enemies respected him, while his friends adored him, for he presented to the latter a singular contrast to that general foible of the the human heart of subordinating friendship to the interest of self.

Adolphus Moore was the very embodiment of chivalrous bravery, whether in the maintenance of his own rights or those of his country. In the late struggle, he entered the Confederate army in Arkansas, fighting with lion-like courage through all the battles of the Western campaign, conspicuous in every engagement for his desperate valor, repeatedly calling upon himself the approval of his commanding officers, and crowned with the enthusiastic admiration of his fellow soldiers; following up the varied fortunes of his command until a portion of the army of the West found itself on North Carolina soil, and Mr. Moore was left, at the end of the war, at but a little distance from the place of his birth. Mr. Moore became, in the troubles which fastened upon Alamance county under the Holden administration, a conspicuous mark for the hatred and malice of those who feared his courage and dreaded his influence. He was subjected to cruel indignities, barely escaping with life under the hands of a lawless soldiery called into existence to carry out the unwarranted deeds of unconstitutional authority.

Upon the melancholy circumstances of his tragic fate we will, at present, make no comment. That case is in the hands of the law, and we shall say nothing to prejudge public opinion. The examination will determine the measure of guilt or innocence, of provocation or justification.

HIS SATANIC MAJESTY seems to be no respecter of persons. He sweeps into his net all alike, and he seems just now to have a special fancy for those whom the world sets up to venerate and respect from sacredness of calling or sanctimony of conduct. He seems to have a particular fancy of late for preachers, and for men particularly prominent for deeds of charity and activity in Sunday schools. He got hold of the Hon. Lucius W. Pond, of Worcester Mass., and took special delight in stripping off the robes of sanctity which had enveloped the honorable gentleman, and which enabled him through many years to walk into the affections and the purses of his confiding fellow citizens. He shook Pond out of his raiment, and now shows him off as the finished hypocrite and the unscrupulous scoundrel, and turns him into the walls of the penitentiary to muse for the balance of his days on the treachery of his patron in deserting him at the last.

Now, his majesty has turned his back upon the Rev. E. D. Winslow, of Boston. Oh! what a saint he appeared to be for so many years. He was a preacher in good standing in the Methodist church; he was a prominent leader in the temperance cause; he was a fanatic prohibitionist; he was a prominent politician—on the radical side and that accounts for it all—and he was chief proprietor of the Boston Daily News. He was admired, trusted, respected, revered; but when his MASTER had got service enough out of him the reverend Mr. Winslow is stripped of his false garb and is presented to the astonished world as a finished villain, a forger of long-standing and to large amounts. Like Pond he made good his flight, for the while at least, for Pond was unearthed from the recesses of the Rocky mountains and brought back to receive his reward. Winslow has gone to Holland with which there is no extradition treaty, and may snap his fingers at justice.

But these things will happen, and there is no special moral to be drawn from them except what is expressed in the old negro's soliloquy, "white folks is mighty unsartin."

LYNCHING IN VIRGINIA.

We take elsewhere from the Richmond Dispatch some account of the lynching of three men by two different parties, two men being hung by a mob of whites and one white man hung by a mob of negroes.

Virginia has been as remarkable for its obedience to the law, and its patient waiting upon it as the avenger of crime, as North Carolina. Both are slow to take the law into their own hands, though Virginia justice and a Virginia man did give name to the prompt and popular code known as lynch law. But the origin of that law was founded upon the same causes that moved its revival in Virginia. There was that distrust in the fairness and the purity of the judiciary which made punishment doubtful, and which, therefore, emboldened crime. The same causes led to the exceptional condition of things in North Carolina in 1869-70, affecting so seriously its good old name and fame. When judges are pure, and when they are fearless, the instinct of good order asserts itself in both Virginia and North Carolina, and the punishment of the most exasperating crimes is left to the steady course of the law. There are several criminal cases now in this State that would have been long ago adjudicated before Judge Lynch had not the people believed that the judiciary had learned something by the experience of the past.

But we do not wish to record such things as we read of in Virginia. They indicate a condition of society that is terrible, or a judicial corruption that is fearful. If the last is the case let the judiciary be speedily purged.

From the Richmond Dispatch.

The Lynching Cases—Further Accounts.

The startling cases of lynch-law in West Virginia are believed to be in some degree the result of an inefficient judiciary and a bad administration of law generally. There is a public fear that the danger to life is increased by the delinquency of the administrators of justice and this fear in some localities is so great that the people have determined to take the law in their own hands to a degree sufficient to stimulate the officers of the law to a more vigorous and faithful performance of their duties.

An intelligent gentleman from West Virginia communicates to us the following facts concerning the

LYNCHING OF DAWSON AND ESTEPT AT CHARLESTON.

A man named Lee lived near Malden. He had been an intemperate man, but about a year ago, shocked by the violent death of a brother, had reformed, and was leading a correct and devoted life. On Christmas last two young men, among others, named Dawson and Estept, persuaded him into a saloon and got him drunk. He started for home a little after dark. The young men ran after him, shouting. As he came to a high bridge over Campbell's creek his mule balked, and he was overtaken. A struggle occurred; and his body was found the next morning in the creek below, pierced with thirty-six wounds with knives. Dawson and Estept were arrested.

A mob, led by two sons of Lee, surrounded the jail a few nights afterwards and demanded Estept and Dawson. They were spirited away by the sheriff to Barboursville. It is but fair to say that the mob was orderly, acted with military precision, was very quiet, and declared from the first that their strongest motive was the fact that out of seventeen murderers in Kanawha county not one man had been hanged, and they did not believe it safe to submit to the law's delays.

Part of the mob rode there, where they were again anticipated, and the murderers taken to Point Pleasant. A short time ago they were brought back for examination. They were sent on, but through fears of the mob were again removed. Their trial was set for Monday last, and they were brought back to Charleston.

On Tuesday at 1 p. m. a party of miners numbering more than one hundred stood about the court-house waiting the decision of the court on motion for change of venue, with the distinct declaration that they would not interfere with a prompt trial, but the men should not be removed. The judge reserved his decision until morning. The fatal indecision alarmed the mob. At 10 o'clock the jail was surrounded, the guards overpowered, and the murderers taken to the very bridge where the murder was done and hanged.

[Detroit Press.

His Aristocratic Feelings.

At noon yesterday a young man of good looks but poor raiment was arrested on Jefferson avenue for drunkenness. He wanted to make his way to the Central Station alone, and when the officer wouldn't allow it he sought to compromise by saying:

"Then don't take me down till dark!"

After being registered by the Captain the prisoner asked what charge was placed against his name.

"Drunk," said the captain.

"Nothing but drunk!" exclaimed the prisoner.

"No."

"Make it highway robbery!" he pleaded.

"Can't do it—you are drunk."

"Make it burglary!" continued the prisoner, his face expressing the greatest anxiety.

"But you are guilty of nothing but drunkenness."

"I know it, but won't you respect my feelings?" asked the prisoner.

"How?" asked the captain.

"Any common man can get drunk, but I came from a good family, and I know how it'll hurt the old man to find I've got down to common. Make it—make it——"

"I can't," interrupted the Captain.

"Make it the Nathan murderer and I'll give you ten dollars," exclaimed the exalted and anxious young man.

And when they wouldn't he sat in his cell and wept at his degradation.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

The Hon. A. H. Stephens is opposed to the calling of a Constitutional Convention in Georgia. He thinks there is too much passion in the public mind to make changes at the present time advisable.

While American young men are concealing themselves in huge overcoats and lounging around big fires, an old man in Canada, aged 114 years old, passes his winters in a perfectly nude state, and has been living thus for forty years.

Chicago Times: Some of the Catholic papers claim that Washington was a Roman Catholic, because after his army had crossed the Delaware he "crossed" himself. We hardly believe it, though, on that ground.

Messrs. Moody and Sankey will have the assistance of a trained choir of 1,000 voices in their New York religious campaign. The walls of Jericho will go down like oats before the Western blizzard when that choir "Holds the Fort."

Indiana has 687,788 children of school age, of whom, according to the census just published, only 4,922 are illiterates. The State has a snug little school fund, stated at $8,799,101, and her school property is valued at $10,870,338.—Chicago Tribune.

New York Sun: Mr. Bonner is driving Grafton and mate almost daily in the Park, and the question debated is which is the handsomer horse, Dexter or Grafton? Horsemen generally say that, however fast Grafton may be, the gamiest-looking horse they have ever seen is Dexter.

Last summer the Supreme Court justices of New York proposed a movement to secure from the Legislature a withdrawal of the privilege, now given to certain law schools in that State, whereby their graduates are admitted to the bar without further examination. The Bar Association have now procured a report covering the same ground, and strenuously opposing what they call "the short cuts to the bar through the golden gates" of these law schools.

Presidential gossip is plenty and various. A Washington correspondent sends this contribution to the Cincinnati Commercial: "For some days past there has been a large number of Southern Federal officials here in Washington, probably sixty in all, from various parts of the South. They have held several secret caucuses, together with several of the prominent Republicans leaders here, and it is alleged that they have agreed to work up opinion in the South in favor of Bristow and Jewell for the nominees of the Republican party this fall."

E. D. Winslow, one of the principal owners of the Daily News and Post newspapers of Boston, is accused of having issued forged paper to the amount of probably $200,000. Forged notes amounting to $7,000, negotiated in one of the Boston banks by Winslow, have already been discovered. It is not believed that either of the newspapers is effected by his transactions. It is said that Winslow and his family left Boston last Thursday "for parts unknown." The Boston Herald states that the stocks and notes, forged and genuine, issued by Winslow, and held as security, will reach $500,000. It also says that among the persons whose names are on Winslow's paper, forged or otherwise, are W. E. Sheldon, for $104,000; Leopold Morse, for $60,000; B. F. Hayes, for $45,000; and that the Blackstone National and Shoe and Leather National Banks are among those holding useless collaterals. Other papers report other swindles. It is said that Winslow sold his interest in the News last week. Winslow was quite a respectability. He was educated as a Methodist minister, was chapiain of two regiments during the war, and also a chaplain in the Navy, and has since officiated in several churches. He was formerly publisher of Zion's Herald, and served three terms in the Massachusetts Legislature, the last in 1875.

Pittsburg Leader, Jan. 21.

A Frightful Occurrence.

A frightful accident occurred yesterday morning about eight o'clock at the LaBelle steel-works, Ridge street, Allegheny. A large bar of steel, heated to a white heat, was passing through the rolls, when a catcher by the name of John Graff attempted to seize it with pincers. Unluckily he missed it, and the iron, striking him between the groins, passed through and into the hip, the weight and the heat together causing it to turn downward until it fell to the ground. The unfortunate man was immediately removed to his home near by and Dr. Johnson was summoned. Two other physicians were subsequently called, and every effort made to relieve the sufferer. Last evening he was in a critical state, and there is but little hope of recovery. He is a young man, and has been married about one year.

HOW HE BORROWED A HUNDRED DOLLARS.—A applied to B for a loan of $100. B replied: "My dear A, nothing would please me better than to oblige you, and I will do it. I haven't $100 by me, but make a note and I'll indorse it, and you can get the money from the bank." Grateful A proceeded at once to write the note. "Stay," said B, "make it $200; I want $100 myself." A did so, B indorsed the paper, the bank discounted it, and the money was divided. When the note was due B was in California and A had to meet the payment. What he is unable to cipher out is whether he borrowed $100 of B or B borrowed $100 of him. —Lowell Courier.

OPINION OF A BALTIMOREAN.—I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for some time in my family, and found it the best remedy for Colds, Coughs, &c., I ever tried.—Louis Bruning, 26 Caroline Street.

DRY GOODS.

Centennial Year, 1876!

In commencing business for the year, we return our thanks for the Liberal patronage extended to us THE PAST YEAR.
Our plan of conducting business, has been a success, and we are more than gratified at its results.

THE CASH PLAN

Our Customers approve it; Heads of families approve it, and the Ready Paying Public are Jubilant over the CASH SYSTEM adopted by us a year ago.
Why? Because they have no large bills to pay each month, and consequently save money.
Because a small Bill is easier paid than a large one.
And because TUCKER BROS. can and do SELL CHEAPER for the cash; as they MAKE NO BAD DEBTS.
The cash customer does not pay any part of the price, necessary to be charged on goods sold bad or doubtful debts.

THE CASH PLAN

Saves Labor, Saves Trouble, Saves Misunderstandings, Saves Money, Because you buy cheaper.

Our Stock will always be kept Full and Fresh, with all the New and Desirable Styles and Qualities.

AND ALL WILL BE SOLD CHEAP.

APPLETON'S JOURNAL,
A Household Weekly Magazine, devoted to Popular Literature, and all matters of taste and culture.
APPLETON'S JOURNAL appears in new type and with other mechanical improvements, making it the handsomest weekly literary journal in the country. APPLETONS' JOURNAL aims to be comprehensive, including in its plan all branches of literature, and treating all subjects of interest to intelligent readers; it designs to be elevated in taste and pure in tone; it gives in quantity fully twenty five per cent. more than the largest of the monthly Magazines, while in quality its literature is of the highest class.
Price, $4 per annum; 10 cents per number.
SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.
The undersigned have procured, exclusively for subscribers to APPLETONS' JOURNAL a splendid steel engraving of "Charles Dickens in his Study," which is offered, under special terms to every subscriber—in advance—to JOURNAL for 1876.
This steel engraving is in line and stipple. It is not a fancy picture, but an actual representation of Charles Dickens' study at Gadshill, while the portrait of the distinguished author is strikingly faithful.
The size of the plate is 20 x 14, printed on heavy plate paper 24 x 30, making a large and handsome engraving for the parlor or library wall. The execution of the plate is of a superior order.
The ordinary price of the steel engraving of this character in the print-shops would not be less than five, and perhaps six dollars. It is offered exclusively to subscribers, in addition to the JOURNAL for one year, for $4.00—that is, for $1.00 additional, each yearly advance subscriber to the JOURNAL for 1876 may receive a superb engraving worth fully five times the amount.
This engraving is entirely new. It has never been for sale in the print-shops, and cannot be obtained except in connection with APPLETON'S JOURNAL upon the terms and conditions given above. It will be mailed to subscribers, postage prepaid.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Ritualists not Going to the Roman Catholics.

LONDON, Jan 28.—The Voce Della Verita of Rome noticing the reports published in the English papers of secret negotiations between the Extremists of the Anglican clergy and the Vatican, looking to the secession to Rome of the whole body of Ritualists, strenuously denies the existence of any such negotiations. It says there is a powerful but not secret movement among the English protestant clergy towards a return to the glorious unity of the church. The Rev. Frederick George, Vicar of All Saints, Lambeth, to whom the Manchester Guardian's London Correspondent credited the letters to Archbishop Manning and presentation of the petition to the Pope on the subject, writes to the Guardian indignantly denying any connection therewith.

Lieut. Cameron Passed Safely Across the African Continent—A British Steamer Sent to Bring Him Home.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—The government has ordered Her Majesty's steamship Sirius to proceed to Loando, on the west coast of Africa, and take on board the party of Lieutenant Cameron, who has just marched through the southern central part of Africa from the Indian ocean to the Atlantic. The lieutenant's native escort is to be taken to Zanzibar.

Later advices from Loando report Lieut Cameron's health fully restored.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Morton, on making a motion that Thursday be set aside for the consideration of the Louisiana Senatorial question, said it was time the question was settled.

Rep. Starkweather is dead.

The House observed the usual mourning ceremony.

In the Senate, Morton from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, reported adversely on the papers of J. B. Eustis, claiming a seat as Senator from Louisiana, and they were laid on the table.

The Eustis Case—Committee Recommend it Lie on the Table.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The Committee on elections and privileges will report back the Eustis papers with the recommendation that they lie on the table, because the committee find that at the time of Eustis's alieged election, there was no vacancy. The vote was yeas, Morton, Logan, Mitchell, and McMillan. Nays, Saulsbury Merrimon and Cooper. Absent Wadleigh and Cameron, both republicans.

Losses by the Northampton Bank Robbery.

BOSTON, Jan. 28.—The total loss by the Northampton Bank is $720,000. The bank loses $120,000; ex-Judge, E. B. Forbes loses $100,000; six per cent. was in United States bonds, registered; J. S. Lathrop loses $30,000 in Georgia bonds. About half a million are registered bonds and certificates of stock not negotiable.

Defeat of the Insurgents at Trebigne Admitted.

RAGUSA, Jan. 28.—Accounts from Sclavonic sources admit the defeat of the Insurgents on the Trebigne road on Wednesday last, but represent the Turks as having been greatly superior in numbers. They admit the loss of 150 killed, and claim that the Turks lost 130.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The Secretary of the Treasury has gone to New York.

House—The committee on Real Estate consists of Pool, Clover, New, Lewis, Pratt and Smith, of Va.

A memorial from New Mexico Legislature, asking for admission was presented.

A committee consisting of Whittemore. Wallis and Danforth, were authorized to take testimony at Norfolk, Va., regarding frauds in the Navy Yard.

The consular and diplomatic bill reported, appropriates $922,847, containing the reductions heretofore reported.

The bill relieving the disabilities of F. Nichols, of Louisiana, passed.

The bill prohibiting American citizens from holding slaves in foreign countries was referred. The House went into committee of the whole on Military Academy. The debate was very bitter. As an illustration, after referring to the fact that Mr. Hale, of Maine, whom he called Blaine's little bub, and was called to order, voting last year against and now for the Centennial.

Mr. Cox said: "I have no personal feeling about him; he is nothing to me and I am, I suppose, nothing to him. What I mean is this, that when the Democratic side of the House after a hard old struggle to get into power, after the scoundrelism, after the swindling, after the prodigality of many years, never straight, always crooked, on your side of the House and on the part of the administration, comes in here with one little bill for West Point, not seeking to reduce the expenditures beyond what they were in 1867, it is opposed by the Republican economists, eating their own words and going back on their own record. In the name of the people who are distressed, in the name of honest men everywhere, I protest in one word against the whole body of that side of the House as wanting in fair, square economy. All your platforms favor retrenchment, and the people cry for it every where; and yet on the very first opportunity when there is an honest, square, fair bill brought in here, which cuts down luxurious living at West Point, the whole body of Republicans fly in the face of their own platform and of their precious record."

Without passing the bill, the committee rose. A session to-morrow for debate.

The Supreme Court denies a motion for new trial for Delano.

Senate.—The Centennial appropriation bill was reported by the Appropriations Committee without amendment.

Johnson introduced a bill to incorporate the District Inebriate Asylum.

The bill paying interest was discussed to adjournment without action. No executive session.

In the House all reductions proposed in the West Point Academy bill were passed without division or call of ayes and nays.

The House Military Committee seems opposed to the reduction either in the number or pay of the army. Both parties caucus tomorrow night over the campaign.

The Spanish War—A Movement to Crush out the Carlists.

SAN SEBASTIAN, Jan. 28.—Nothing definite from the fighting. It is generally believed that simultaneous movements are being made in the provinces of Navarre and Biscay; if so a few days will tell whether Carlism is ended or another campaign is to drag through the coming summer.

Revolution in Hayti.

HAVANA. Jan. 28.—A revolution has broken out in Hayti. The revolutionists are in possession of Jaemel. The President ordered the foreign club at Port au Prince to be closed, but Bassett, the United States Minister, who is the President of the club, refused to accede to the demand.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Letter from Hillsboro—Tobacco—Big Breaks Next Month.

HILLSBORO, N. C., Jan. 27, '76.

Messrs. Editors:—Charming weather we are having, though mild and spring-like as the weather has been some few of our citizens have been lucky enough to put up ice.

There is some trapping going on about the creeks in this county, for muskrats, coons, etc. They say it is a profitable business if a man can trap enough of the "varmints." A muskrat's skin sells for forty cents.

The tobacco market here is fast picking up. Prices rule high and the planters about the country are all saving their tobacco for the big break at the Hillsboro warehouse, run by E. H. Pogue, which comes off the 8th and 9th of next month.

THE GENTLE SEX.

Nilsson's husband, M. Rozeaud, is dangerously ill.

Miss Anna Dickinson is obliged to go to Cuba for the benefit of her health.

A Brooklyn paper says there is a girl in that city whose face is so beautiful that an old gentleman recently said of her that "if kisses had been entirely unknown, she would have invented them."

A lady called upon her milliner the other day to get the character of her servant. The respectable appearance of the latter was beyond questioning. "But is she honest?" asked the lady. "I am not so certain about that," replied the milliner. "I have sent her to you with my bill a dozen times, and she has never yet given me the money."

Mrs. Thomas, or Thomassen, widow of the dynamite assassin, and her children left Hamburg on Wednesday for New York. She has been universally consoled. The Americans in Dresden subscribed and presented her $1,500. She resolutely refused to permit the adoption of her children by German notabilities.—N. Y. Herald.

Mr. Wm. L. Burt, late postmaster of Boston, employed about thirty women as post-office clerks. He says of them: "The women have proved far superior to men in looking up mis-sent and misdirected letters, and in making returns to the dead-letter office. They have also proved entirely reliable. There has not been a single instance in nine years where the accounts of any woman have shown a deficiency of $1 in the Boston post-office."

The Hammonsport Herald, which, by the way, is edited by two ladies, publishes the following advertisement in its local columns: "Lost—On Wednesday evening, between the residences of Mrs. Retan and James Alexander, in the town of Pultney, a widower. He has long been known in this section as William Depew, and his sudden disappearance creates quite an excitement. A widower is a queer thing to lose, but we will bet a hat that when the said widower is found there'll be more than one of him.

The Boston Transcript reports that a venerable retailer of twaddle, a society man who has outlived his usefulness, but who still hovers around at receptions and parties, and indulges in small talk at which no one laughs but himself, sailed up to a couple engaged in conversation in a cozy corner the other evening, and in his most winning tone said: "Judging from the color of her cheeks I should say you had been saying some very complimentary things to Miss ——, my boy." "I never deal in compliments," said the "boy," rather gruffly." "Don't you believe it," broke in the fair Miss ——; "he has paid me a greater compliment than you ever paid a lady in all your life. He has been talking to me as though I knew something."

ANOTHER GREAT CURE OF A VARIETY OF DIFFERENT DISEASES BY DR. JONES.

I came to Dr. Jones, two weeks ago, on a crutch, could scarcely get along, even with it, having had rheumatism for thirteen months, was four months on my back; I had enlarged spleen, dyspepsia and disease of the liver. Also, I could not eat, nor sleep, nor walk, and suffered most excruciating pains day and night for four months. Dr. Jones, in one operation, enabled me to walk without a crutch, and to-day I return home a cured and new man in every respect. My doctor told me I could not live unless I went to the springs; but not being able to do that, I came to Dr. Jones, who has made me a new man in two weeks. My neighbors did not expect me to live, but I return to them to-day like another man. I advise the afflicted, far and near, no matter what their disease is, or how others have failed, to apply to Dr Jones. No man could have been worse than myself and live at all, before I went to this great physician.

R. H. WELSH.

Friendfield, Marion Co., S. C.

Dr. Jones will continue to cure the afflicted at the Humphrey, House, Goldsboro, N. C., until 2nd of February.

THE DESOLATED SOUTH.

GOV. CHAMBERLAIN'S PROTEST.

The Fruits of the Carpet-Bagger's Infamous Rule — Republicanism Must Unload or Die in Dishonor.

Governor Chamberlain of South Carolina has addressed an important letter to a prominent Republican Senator in Washington, from which we print the following extracts:

I took my seat as Governor Dec. 1, 1874, and I addressed myself earnestly to the work of keeping the pledges I had made and the pledges made for me by all my friends and by our platform in the campaign. I soon found that many of those who supported me in the campaign and had talked reform did not want reform; but I persevered, determined as a matter of right and of good policy, to adhere to my party platform and pledges. Of course those who disliked practical reform cried out: "He is going over to the Democrats. He wants social recognition from the rebels," and all the rest of those senseless cries such as you now hear about me. Still I persevered and when our Legislature met in November last there was apparent harmony between me and my party and a complete acquiescence in the wisdom of the policy of reform as carried out by me. What then is the matter with me? Why was I disliked and denounced by some members of my own party? Simply for this: I insisted on reasonable taxes, competent officers, honest expenditures, fair legislation and no stealing, and the Democrats praised me for it. The two last things are my offense. I did not sanction schemes of public plunder such as our printing ring, for instance, but the cost of public printing per year was cut down from $180,000 to $50,000, and contingent funds from $80,000 to $27,000, and I repeat, the Democrats praised me. Such was the condition of affairs here on the 15th day of last December. The Democracy of South Carolina was in perfect collapse. No State issues could have given them life or activity. It is doubtful whether even national issues would have had force enough to have induced a canvass of the State for the Democratic candidates in the coming Presidential campaign; under the circumstances then existing. On the 16th of December last, the General Assembly, under influences which it is impossible now to state fully, elected F. J. Moses, Jr., and W. J. Whipper as Judges of the Circuit Court of this State, the latter for the circuit which embraces the city of Charleston and constitutes the most important circuit of the State in point of population, wealth and business. Are you aware who these men are? Moses was my predecessor as Governor. Unless the universal belief among all classes of people in this State is mistaken, he is as infamous a character as ever in any age disgraced and prostituted public position. Disappointed in not being renominated for Governor, he entered into a conspiracy with some of the leaders of the Democracy and independent Republicans to elect my opponent, and actually sold out the Commissioners of Elections, of whom he had the sole appointment, to my opponents for $30,000, of which $15,000 was paid to him in cash, and the rest made contingent on the election of my opponent. Of Whipper it can be said that he seems to have lacked only opportunity to prove himself the equal of Moses in infamy. Ignorant of law, ignorant of morals, a gambler by open practice, an embezzler of public funds, he is as unfit for judicial position as any man whom by possibility you could name. Neither of these men has even the poor qualifications, which the infamous Democratic Judges of New York had, of such a degree of legal knowledge as to qualify them for the intelligent discharge of any judicial duty. What has been the result? Their election has sent a thrill of horror through the whole State. It has split the Republicans in twain. The moribund Democracy have awakened to new life and new hopes. No man who respects civilization and public decency can do less than denounce these elections without measure. No decent man can do less than oppose them, can do less than fight against those who elected them or who acquiesce in them. Do you expect us to do in South Carolina what you would sooner lose your right arm than do in your own State? Such a test, indeed, could never arise in the latter, but it has arisen here, and you err wholly if you imagine that you, living here, would for one moment think of tolerating these elections. You could not do it, and you would spurn as an insult the suggestion of supporting or acquiescing in them. And here let me speak plainly. To cry "Democrat" at me at this time is to support Moses and Whipper. I am a Republican of just as many years standing as I have seen years of discretion. I have no tendency to any other party—no association, no sympathy with any other party. I want to see South Carolina remain a Republican State, but I tell you no party can rule this State that supports Whipper and Moses, and to denounce us who are to-day denouncing the election of these men is to support them. There is but one way to save the Republican party in South Carolina, and that way is, I repeat, to unload Moses and Whipper and all who go with them. It will be difficult to restore confidence in a party whose members were once capable of such an act as their election, but if our action is prompt and decided, if you and the Republicans at Washington will put your feet upon such things and stamp them out, we can yet make South Carolina and keep her safely Republican as Vermont or Iowa. If this is not done, we go down here as a party to hopeless and deserved defeat and infamy. Neither the administration at Washington, with all its appliances, civil and military, nor all the denunciations of the world heaped upon me can save the Republican party here from overwhelming defeat during this year, unless we can persuade the people of this State that such things as these judicial elections will be undone and never, by any possibility, be repeated.

A number of employees in various departments of the Manchester (old) cotton mills, were discharged Saturday evening and it is reported that after working up the stock on hand the mills will suspend operation. This establishment runs 9,000 spindles, two hundred and twenty looms, and gives employment to over two hundred operatives, and their suspension will entail suffering on many worthy and needy people.—Richmond Enquirer 25th.

During the last few days there have been heavy movements in peanuts, both in receipts and shipments, in this city. The market, however, shows a decline in comparison with the prices of last week, which were doubtless increased by speculation at the North.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Wilmington Journal reports the burning of Gov. Owens house on Cape Fear river in Bladen county, an old historical mansion.

Platt D. Walker lost a valuable diamond ring at the Central Hotel in Charlotte but the negro porter found it and was honest enough to return it.

Blind Tom at Goldsboro, Goldsboro Messenger: "Blind Tom," the wonderful negro boy pianist, is to give two entertainments in Goldsboro next week. See advertisement.

New post-office. Winston Sentinel: A new post office has been established in Stokes county, on the Reidsville route, between Walnut Cove and Hairston's Ford, called Sauratown; with Jacob Fulton, Post Master.

A bold rascal. Wilmington Journal: We learn that a bold instance of robbery transpired on the premises of Adam Emple, Esq., night before last. The thief boldly entered the back gate and deliberately drove off a milch cow,—a very fine one.

A hog's tusks. Magnolia Record: Alfred Hollingsworth, Esq., residing near this place has brought us two tusks of a hog four years old, which are real curiosities. They measure seven inches in length and are about half inch in diameter. Taken from the mouth of a tame animal only 4 years old.

On a visit. Salem Press: Mrs. Montgomery, of Philadelphia, many years since a pupil of Salem Female Academy,—then Miss Claytor, of Lynchburg, Va.,—is here on a visit, with her son and daughter, stopping at the Salem Hotel. Mrs. Montgomery has found several of her old friends yet on the stage of life.

Col. Bennett again: Wadesboro Argus: From what we said last week in regard to the departure of Col. R. T. Bennett from our midst, it might be inferred that he had taken a final departure; but we understand through S. T. Ashe; Esq., that the Colonel will attend his business in connection with the firm of Ashe and Bennett, as usual. But where will he live in the meantime?

A bank sold out. Fayetteville Gazette: The Merchant's Bank of Fayetteville has been sold out, exclusive of the banking building, to the Fayetteville National Bank, and the business, notes, &c., have been transferred from the former establishment to the latter. The Merchant's was a State bank, and its business, under the usury law, had ceased to be profitable.

An old Confederate Commission just arrived. Fayetteville Gazette: Last Sunday Mr. W. T. Taylor received from the post-office his commission as Captain in the Confederate States army, 56th Regt., N. C. S. T. We learn that Mr. Taylor intends writing to Governor Vance—who, since the commission was issued, has moved his head-quarters from Raleigh to Charlotte—declining the office, on the ground that, when he enlisted, he did not know of the existence of Blaine on the other side. Where this commission has been hiding, or on what mail lines it has been travelling, is a mystery; but anyhow, it arrived in due form only the other day.

Helping the old aunty. Wilmington Star: An old mulatto woman, about 73 years of age, applied at the City Hall yesterday for assistance in reaching Opelika, Ala., where she says her children, with the exception of one she has with her, who is over 50 years of age, are living. Her statement is to the effect that her master sent her to Boston during the late war, together with her oldest child, where she remained until a few weeks since, when, feeling herself incapable of further exertion to support herself, and her daughter being partly idiotic, she resolved to try and find her old home and the children she left behind her. She has received assistance thus far on her journey, and we learn the Mayor promised to see what he could do for her. The old woman gives her name as Vina Brigadier.

The peanut question. A farmer in the Wilmington Journal: It is one of the tricks of the peanut trade at the North, to produce the impression, about the time peanut speculators are ready to operate, that a heavy crop of peanuts has been raised in Africa, Tennessee, Virginia and North Carolina. To effect this speculating purpose, paragraphs are managed to appear in newspapers that the price of peanuts will be low because of these heavy yields in peanut localities. These paragraphs are copied in Southern newspapers and thus are peanut farmers often imposed upon, by peanut rings and peanut speculators, who in such ways adroitly manage to put down the price, and buy peanuts from the peanut producers at small, and under rates. This sort of speculation upon peanut farmers has been going on for years Now the favor we ask of you is to find out by your commercial exchanges, and through the efforts of your commercial and local reporters, the actual facts as to the comparative peanut crop raised in Africa, Tennessee and Virginia, for the year 1876. You can obtain this needed information, not from peanut rings and peanut speculators North or South, but from reliable and disinterested sources at home and abroad. Please obtain it and publish the same.

How to sit in church. John Pew has the following in the Greensboro Patriot: The persistence with which men sit at the front end of the pew, when there are only one or two persons—perhaps nobody at all—between them and the farther end, is a great hindrance to the rapid and comfortable seating of the congregation. Take an instance: The usher escorts a stranger along the aisle until they come to a seat occupied by one man only, at the end. The usher touches the occupant on the shoulder, whereupon he turns and looks, then uncrosses his legs, then gets up, and comes out; the stranger goes in and the first occupant returns to his old position. Another stranger comes in, and the same ceremony has to be gone through with again—and so on. Sometimes a new comer has to crowd over the knees of the occupant to a seat on the other side. This shows commendable perseverance on the part of the former, and an obstinacy on the part of the latter which impresses you with a sense of his ability to take care of number one. Now, how convenient and comfortable and sensible it would be,—when a "crowd" is expected at church,—for every person as they come in to take seats towards the farther end of the pew; leaving the front ends unoccupied and inviting to strangers and all others. I have seen strangers hesitate and look mortified when they had to stand and wait at the entrance of a pew for the one occupant to get up and come out to let them in. A shade of suspicion arises that they have happened at the wrong pew."

HOME FERTILIZER.

FARMERS MANIPULATE YOUR OWN FERTILIZER AT HOME AND SAVE FROM FIFTY TO TWO HUNDRED PER CENT.

In order to make your lands productive, it seems almost a necessity that you must use manure of some kind. The question of greatest and decidedly the most important interest to all, is, what fertilizer will give the largest returns for the amount of money invested? A ton of will cost you on your farm, ready for use, from $14 to $16 per ton, the price varying according to your locality. The average cost of the best manipulated Guanos and Phosphates will be, or is, from $45 to $55 per ton with freight added, on your farm.

Orders for the material to make the "HOME FERTILIZER" taken at Carmer's Drug Store, opposite the Market House.

Send in your orders as early as possible.

IN MEMORIAM.

Against the expenditures in honor of the dead, heaven has uttered no prohibition, and earth is not injured by them All those beautiful emblems which adorn the many tombs around which we love to linger, assures us we are in a world of warm and loving hearts; the adorning of the sepulchers of the "loved ones" alleviates our grief and soothes the wounded heart, it also cheers the bereaved to know that additional embellishment of the grave presents stronger attractions to arrest the attention of the stranger, and causes him to pause and learn the name of one who has shared so largely in the love of others. We take this method to inform you we are prepared to fill all orders for decorating the graves of departed friends at low figures. INSURANCE.

OFFICE OF THE SECURITY LIFE & ANNUITY CO., New York, Nov. 1st, 1875.

TO OUR POLICY HOLDERS —AND— FRIENDS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Maj. R. G. Hay, our late General Agent for your State, having retired from our service to go to another field, we beg leave to notify you we have appointed Dr. T. W. Hutson, of South Carolina, one of our old and tried agents, as his successor.

We beg leave to assure you of the continued prosperity of your Company, and to ask your earnest assistance in advancing our mutual interest by increasing its business.

We respectfully refer you to Dr. Futson's card below.

Very respectfully,
ROB'T. CASE, President.

BRANCH OFFICE, SECURITY LIFE INS. & ANNUITY CO., Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 1st, 1875.

REFERRING TO THE ABOVE Card, by which your attention is called to my appointment as General Agent for North Carolina, I think it but proper to state for your information, that I have been connected with the Security Life Company in the State of South Carolina since the year 1868; that the Company has met with great success in that State, having now a larger number of Policies in force than any other Life Company doing business in that section; that it has UP TO THE PRESENT TIME PAID ALL ITS LOSSES, without a SINGLE EXCEPTION, NEVER HAVING LITIGATED A CLAIM. I am happy to inform you its record IS THE SAME IN THIS STATE.

You may rest assured your interest will be duly cared for by me. You will be notified when your payments become due, which payments you will please make at my office, personally or by sight draft, post office order or by Express, upon receipt of which you will have promptly sent you Company's receipt.

Very respectfully,
T. W. HUTSON,
Gen. Ag't. Security Life Co.,
